Dear Friends of Paldi,

Our book at last is finished! Thanks for sharing your stories and pictures with me. It is hoped that this book will serve as a legacy to your children and grandchildren. For this reason you may wish to order one for each and, as it is expected to be ready in time for Christmas giving, you may wish to order early.

Please help by passing on this exciting news to others. To keep the price down it will not be sold in stores as they would add a 40% mark-up.

Orders may be placed through the address below. Please make cheques payable to:
