

UCFV cozies up to India

Province puts $1.25M into partnership

PAUL FONTAINE

PFontaine@abbotsfordtimes.com

Music and dancing brought in a new partnership between UCFV and India, which is meant to bring education and economic benefits to the Fraser Valley, the province and Canada.

The province will be putting $1.25 million into the partnership, Abbotsford-Mount Lehman MLA Mike de Jong said at the University College of the Fraser Valley Wednesday.

The announcement including the naming of DJ Sandhu as the B.C. regional chair on Canada-India business and economic development.

This position is with UCFV's Centre for Indo-Canadian studies.

"While we are late in entering the Indian market, compared to other nations, we will find a niche," said Sandhu, and of the announcement he said, "it was quite a day for B.C. and for our region."

See INDIA, page 8