

International Celebration of Women

March 19, 2011

Two sessions noon-5 PM

7 PM-10 PM

$5 per session

Dinner 5-7 PM $20

Or book all three: session 1, 2 and dinner for $25 before March 1

Entertainment includes singers Kat Wahamaa, Judith Reeves, Lori Watt, writer/artist Doris Paterson, opera singer Jane Perrett, activist/writer Gwynne Hunt, poet Shelley Haggard and the performance art of many local & out-of-town actors: Karen Chang, Raven Candow, Diana Bouey-Brown, Karley Botifan, Taneka McLeod, Diane McArthur, Gay Davis--speaker Pat Kelln from Advocacy for Women.

Join us at 10 AM in Mill Lake-walk to the Civic Plaza for a vigil/memorial for 4,000 missing and murdered women and children in Canada . . . then attend the International Celebration of Women starting at noon-a day of discovery and reflection.

For tickets call Gwynne at 604-859-2407 or email

gwynne1@telus.net

www.ragmag.net

Visa and MasterCard accepted!

If you can't attend, make a donation and we will give your tickets to women who cannot afford to buy tickets!

All proceeds to fund the Memory March and the launch of the book Rampage: the pathology of an epidemic.

(these are volunteer projects sponsored by Art Matters Society)

International Celebration of Women to be held at the Best Western Regency Conference Centre-all tickets in advance.