Proposal

Abbotsford Heritage Gurdwara Centennial Mural

- The mural will be painted on a 4x8 feet canvas panel in oil colors .
- From here on in the proposal, it will be referred to as painting.
- The painting will show ,on the left hand side the Gurdwara, as it is seen in early photographs with the sign Sikh Temple showing . Now the sign says Gur Sikh Temple. But as the old photographs show originally it was called Sikh Temple.
- In the central part of the painting will be shown the popular legend that pioneer Sikhs carried the lumber, which was donated by Abbotsford Lumbar Company, on their shoulders and backs to the site of the Gurdwara.
- In the backdrop will be shown , Abbotsford Lumbar Company situated near mill lake, based on old photographs. The mountain backdrop as seen from the South Fraser Way will be painted in the background.
- The painting based loosely on the rough sketch will be finished over a period of approximately ,10 weeks, starting from the date the work is assigned. If the concept and idea is approved I will be able to finish it by Mid October.
- The cost of the mural will be $12000.An advance payment of 50% of the total cost will be required to start work on the project.
- Framing cost will be additional.
