

Are You Interested in India?

Travel to India

Internationalize your academic or work experience. The Shastri Institute sends Canadian youth to India to:

- study in accredited courses for the summer
- engage in in-depth research
- learn an Indian language
- pursue an Indian art form
- work as a youth intern

Pursue your dreams

Show us how you are engaged in India Studies or are pursuing a career in a field related to India and you could be selected to receive $2,000 to help you accomplish your goals.

Application deadline: October 31, 2008

Share your knowledge

If you've written a paper with relevance to India as part of a course you've taken this year submit it for a chance to win a prize of $500.

Application Deadline: January 15, 2009

For more information see
Programmes for Canadians
www.sici.org

The Shastri Indo-Canadian Institute is a bi-national organization that promotes understanding between India and Canada by facilitating academic activities and exchanges. We offer a variety of awards and opportunities to graduate and undergraduate students across Canada.

"On a professional level, I can say that I probably wouldn't be where I am today if it wasn't for my Shastri Institute internship."

*~ Shelly Abdool,
World Health Organization,
Department of Gender,
Women and Health*

SHASTRI

L'INSTITUT
INDO-CANADIEN

INDO-CANADIAN
INSTITUTE

