SAPNA South Asian Peer Network Association

A Brief Look at SAPNA

The South Asian Peer Network Association .

- > We are an Association of South Asian students working towards the growth of understanding and networking among students by fostering ties with the University of the Fraser Valley students at large
- > We organize activities such as Film Festivals, Exhibitions, Guest Lectures, fun and games, etc.
- > We create an atmosphere for international and local students at University of the Fraser Valley to meet new people and exchange ideas
- > We are always looking for new members, so, come join us!

SAPNA and CICS (Center for Indo-Canadian Studies):

- > SAPNA is involved in providing input to the "Racialized experiences of South Asian youth in a post secondary institution" research project undertaken by CICS
- > SAPNA is the advisory body to the CICS to help develop new courses, activities and programs that focus on India Canada Studies
- > SAPNA members have opportunities for research, work study, internships in India, committee work and speaking engagements
- > SAPNA members support the work at the centre by volunteering their time hosting events, programs and activities to bring students at UFV together
