

SAPNA PRESENTS:

HOLI

THE FESTIVAL OF COLOURS

Today, Holi is an excuse for Indians to shed inhibitions and caste differences for a day of spring fever and big fun. People from all ages spend the day flirting and misbehaving in the streets. Adults extend the hand of peace and everyone chases each other around throwing brightly colored powder (gulal) over each other.

The event will be held on Wednesday, March 11 from 3 - 5 pm RAIN or SHINE! Meet us at the Centre for Indo Canadian Studies (University House, Building F) at 3 pm to learn about the history of Holi and how it is celebrated around the world.

MARCH 11 STARTING @ 3:00 PM

3:00 - 4:00 pm | Learn the History of Holi. Tea will be served.

4:00 - 4:30 pm | Bhangra Performance with step lessons.
