Dear Mrs. McCarrey,

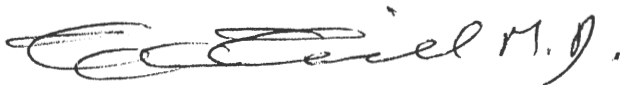

Re: Firm [REDACTED]
Outstanding Balance - $126.20

As I was planning to retire this year, as soon as I got my bill from Workers' Compensation Board I advised the billing personnel that I don't need the WCB coverage and consequently I thought I need not pay the bill. I kept on getting the bills and when I made further inquiry I was told that the bill is for retroactive coverage. You must be the only agency in B.C. or Canada that bills retroactively. I have been paying for WCB coverage for God knows how many years and I don't know whether I paid up front or retroactively when I enrolled in your coverage.

Anyhow rather than go to court which I decided not to go through I paid the coverage for last year and first three months of this year. Now you are still demanding the balance of $126.20 which I totally refuse to pay. If you want me to go to the court for it, please let me know I will be there.

Thanking you.

Yours truly,

Dr. G. S. Gill.
