Mr. Mohinder Gill: For Your Information

Letters like this sent to:

I believe Mr. Mohinder Gill has been in touch with you about the program, Understanding East Indian (Sikh) Culture which our Center is sponsoring in cooperation with the Khalsa Diwan Society in the new year. We are hoping you will consent to serve as a resource person in this program.

The program will consist of four weekly meetings starting in mid-February, to be held in the Sikh Temple at Ross and S.E. Marine Drive, possibly from 3:30 p.m. to 5 or 5:30 p.m.

The program is intended for professional persons and others who come in contact with East Indian people and who wish to learn more about some aspects of Sikh culture. We have already had requests for a program of this kind from teachers, public health nurses, community workers, etc.

We are inviting a number of East Indians to share in the development of the program so that it may be an authentic presentation of such aspects as family life and child rearing, attitudes toward education and the general set-up of schools in Indian, religious beliefs, customs, etc.

Some planning will be necessary in order to work out an integrated series. I hope we might have a preliminary meeting fairly soon.

Would it be possible for you to phone me at your convenience, preferably some afternoon during the week of December 7th? I would appreciate an opportunity to talk with you about this series.

Yours sincerely,

Marjorie
