A History of the Sikhs of Victoria B.C.
Book One

This a historical account of the Sikh community in Victoria, British Columbia from their arrival in the early nineteen hundreds to nineteen sixty-three. The aim of this book is to provide an accurate and descriptive document of the significant events and achievements of that time.

The information in this book comes from an analysis of a variety of historical documents, such as the Khalsa Diwan Societies minute books, newspapers, magazines, periodicals, and records from the City of Victoria Archives and the Victoria Land Titles Office. As well, many interviews and discussions were conducted with the pioneers and their relatives.
