

Kabir Cultural Centre

Is proud to present

“Down the Memory Lane”

An evening of soulful ghazals and delightful Punjabi songs

with

Gurdial Singh Randhawa

Accompanied on Tabla by Jagjit Singh Sohni

Gurdial Singh Randhawa hails from Jalandhar and currently lives in Montreal. In the past he has had glorious musical associations with the likes of K.L. Saigal, Talat Mehmood, Purushottam Jalota and Jagjit Singh. This octogenarian, gifted with an angelic voice, magical fingers and devilish wit, will make you cry and laugh at the same time through his music, memories and all-pervading humanity.

Saturday 25 March 2006 at 7:30 PM

Baha'i Centre, 4747, Boulevard St. Charles, Kirkland

Directions: Hwy 20/ Hwy 40, exit at St. Charles Bd, continue north to Bahai Center

Free Parking at the premises & on cross street in front (Valentine)

Admission: $15 (general), $25 (front rows)

Info: (514) 695-3264, (514) 696-9682, (514) 931-0942