

KABIR CULTURAL CENTRE CULTUREL KABIR

invites you to the screening of two thought-provoking films to celebrate Gandhi Jayanti and International Non-violence day

"As I delved deeper into the philosophy of Gandhi, my skepticism concerning the power of love gradually diminished, and I came to see for the first time that the Christian doctrine of love, operating through the Gandhian method of nonviolence, is one of the most potent weapons available to an oppressed people in their struggle for freedom." Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Gandhi, a film by James Cameron, (1978), B&W, 35 mins, English

This film gives insight into man as well as his political tactics and strategy.

Citizen King, PBS, Colour, English, 40 minutes

The following excerpts from this documentary will be shown:

- Birmingham
- March to Washington
- The Promised Land

Both films explore development and application of non-violence in different countries, context and times, emphasizing its universal relevance.

The screening will be followed by a panel discussion.
